

REAL PROPERTY ASSESSMENT ADMINISTRATIVE APPEAL APPLICATION

Government of the District of Columbia

Office of Tax and Revenue

Real Property Tax Administration

941 North Capitol Street, N.E., Suite 400

Washington, DC 20002

Dear Property Owner:

The Real Property Tax Administration (RPTA) strives to assess property at 100% of market value. Market value is defined as the most probable price that a buyer would pay a willing seller on the open market. As the property owner, you are given the opportunity to dispute the assessment of your real property through a formal appeal process. The process involves three levels of appeal, beginning with the First Level-Administrative Appeal. Subsequent steps include appealing before the Board of Real Property Assessments and Appeals and DC Superior Court. You must, however, start at the First Level before proceeding to the next levels of appeal. Please complete the following information in order to file the First Level appeal of your property.

You Must File Your Appeal Within 30 Days from the Notice Date
